

Proceeds from the sale of this calendar benefit the Southeast Como Improvement Association (SECIA). SECIA is the neighborhood association representing the Como neighborhood in Southeast Minneapolis.

For further information, please stop by, write, or call:
 SE Como Improvement Association
 837 SE 15th Ave., Minneapolis, MN 55414
 612-676-1731 / www.secomo.org

Como boundaries:
 E. Hennepin Ave/Winter St. NE to the north
 Elm St./railroad tracks to the south
 35W/railroad tracks to the west
 St. Paul border/Hwy 280 to the east

Sources: 1922 & 1936 Minneapolis City Directories; Business without Boundary: the story of General Mills, James Gray, 1954; Como Evangelical Free Church (www.isfc-como.org/ComoHistory.htm); General Mills' "The Modern Millwheel", February 1946; History of Minneapolis, Isaac Atwater, volume 1, page 192, 1893; Lost Minnesota: Stories of Vanished Places, Jack El-Hai, 2000; Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board; Pat Clough, 2005; Peter Kish, 2005; Russell Belk, 2005; Southeast Christian Church; Star Tribune, "General Mills: 75 years of cereal and surprises", Mai Hoang, June, 18, 2003; Steve Grothjan, 2005; University Lutheran Church of Hope; U.S. EPA Superfund Redevelopment Initiative, General Mills/Henkel Case Study, April 1999.

Sponsored by: Museum Services, Oak's Hardware, Pete's Como Barber Shop, and The Rayvic Company

From Rice's Map of Minneapolis, 1895, University of Minnesota Libraries